KEYNOTE SPEAKER

APPI is thrilled to announced the Keynote Speaker will be Devon Clunis, retired Chief of Police for the City of Winnipeg after 29 years in 2016, to speak to our delegates on Monday, October 20, 2025.

Devon has a reputation for professionalism, integrity, and problem-solving. Skilled in evaluating and enhancing community safety systems, he has inspired change and implemented best practices in policing both in Canada and the United States of America.

Devon currently works across Canada and the U.S. assisting policing in meeting the emerging needs of community safety and well-being in the 21st century, in addition to speaking extensively on leadership, organizational development, and the need for unity in diversity.
