Candidate Members and Mentors Virtual Discussion Series Proposal

Are you a Candidate member currently engaged in the mandatory one year mentorship period of the RPP certification process, or currently a RPP member mentoring a Candidate member? Would you be interested in joining other Candidate members and their mentors for a series of virtual discussions on professional codes of conduct and practice, the 'public interest' in professional planning, and professional competence in the planning profession? The vision is this discussion group would create an opportunity for a greater diversity of views to be discussed and provide a richer experience for the Candidate members and their mentors. If you would be interested in participating in this virtual discussion series please email the APPI Office at admin@albertaplanners.com on or before January 30, 2025. Based on the responses received, APPI will determine if there is significant interest to proceed with the scheduling of this proposed discussion series. The series would be scheduled over the noon hour on a week day, to be determined, commencing in early February. While the focus of the series will be to support those Candidate members and their mentors, currently engaged in the mandatory one year mentor period of the RPP certification process, all members are welcome to participate in this discussion series.
